John E Reed, Chairman and CEO, indicated as follows:

The Company's Income from Continuing Operations were up substantially in the quarter ended June 30, 2005 versus the quarter ended June 30, 2004 reflecting, most significantly, the elimination of substantial Subsidiary Bankruptcy Professional Fees which impacted the 2004 quarter heavily, the effect also of increased sales in the Company's Metal Forming segment, and the effect of improved margins in certain HVAC products.

The Company's Income from Discontinued Operations relates to the Company's former subsidiary, Omega-flex, inc., which was successfully "spun-off" on July 29, 2005 and now trades on the NASDAQ national market under the symbol OFLX.
